Business Briefs...

The Delaware Real Estate Commission approved the application of Capital Commercial Realty to operate as an independent commercial brokerage in Delaware. The Commission unanimously approved the application during its regular monthly meeting June 13. The approval enables the company to begin operating immediately.

The newly formed brokerage is operated by Christopher J. Whitfield and G. Steven Montague, both formerly partners of Coldwell Banker Commercial Amato Associates in Newark and Dover.

Capital Commercial Realty will provide comprehensive commercial real estate services for sellers and buyers in all market segments, including office space, retail, shopping centers, industrial, multi-family units, apartments and land.

Capital Commercial Realty's offices are located at 500 W. Loockerman Street, Suite 600, Dover.
